CALL FOR PROPOSALS

2021CE160AT144

'Preparation and implementation of a course on the EU and on EU Cohesion policy for higher education institutions teaching journalism

Questions & Answers (Q&As)

03/03/2022

You will find below a list of questions received for this call for proposals. Please note that the present document aims to complement and clarify the call for proposals and does not replace it. A Q&As document will be periodically published; applicants are invited to check this website regularly.

Q1. Is there an expectation concerning the size of the consortium, more concretely, the "number of the Member States of origin of the educational institutions"? In other programs (e.g. Horizon Europe, previously H2020, applicants calculate the average size proposed consortia based on the results of past calls)

A1. There is no expectation with regard to the size of the consortium. Nevertheless, please refer to Section 2 of the Call for proposals where it is indicated that one of the objectives is to "Create a network of accredited higher education institutions teaching journalism in the Member States (at least two universities, each from a different Member State), network which will implement the course".

Q2. Is there an expectation of inclusion of Member States from all geographical flanks of the EU (North, South, East, West)?

A2. No, there is no such expectation under the call for proposal.

Q3. Can there be more than one consortium member from a given country?

A3. Yes.

Q4. Will the Call Management team organize an online seminar about the call?

A4. No, DG REGIO will not organize an online seminar about the call.

Q5. Are there national points of contact we may reach for help on clarifying specific details of the application process?

A5. We are not aware of any national point of contact. As indicated in Section 14 of the call for proposals, questions may be sent to REGIO-CONTRACTS@ec.europa.eu.

Questions may be sent by applicants to the above address no later than 10 days before the deadline for the submission of proposals.
